

CHANGE

Training Program

WHAT IS CHANGE (T32)?

Culturally-focused HIV Advancements through the Next Generation for Equity is an interdisciplinary, innovative, and timely approach to train the next generation of HIV behavioral scientists with skills to address persistent health disparities in HIV treatment and prevention in Black, Latinx, and LGBTQ communities.

CHANGE CURRENTLY OFFERS A:

Pre-Doctoral Track & Post-Doctoral Track

CHANGE'S 8 CORE COMPETENCIES:

For more information on program structure, requirements, and application processes, please visit our website: <https://charm.miami.edu/change> or contact us at change-program@miami.edu